

July 13, 2020

To: Interested media

ICYMI: Here is a rapid-fire update on what happened last week in Turkish economic, trade and business news.

- Turkey's Foreign Minister announced the UK and Turkey are "very close" to signing a free trade agreement following his visit to London and meeting with Prime Minister Boris Johnson.
- Turkey and Latvia agreed to boost bilateral trade to \$1 billion after the trade ministries held the First Term Joint Economic and Trade Committee (JETCO) virtual meeting last week. The current bilateral trade volume is $293 million.
- Turkey's Manufacturing Industry Export Climate Index, the leading indicator measuring the activity of the manufacturing sector in main export markets, increased to 47.5 in June. A full recovery in foreign sales is expected in the second half of the year.
- Turkey saw a 986% year-on-year growth in PPE exports in the first 6 months of 2020, reaching a record of $573.4 million. Turkish companies accelerated production to meet global demand amid the COVID-19 crisis.
- Turkey's tourism capital, Antalya, is starting its travel season, welcoming over 27,000 visitors in the first week of July. Tourism-related businesses must follow all preparations and meet guidelines in line with the Safe Tourism Certification program launched by the Foreign, Culture and Tourism and Transportation ministries.

"DISSEMINATED BY MERCURY PUBLIC AFFAIRS, LLC, A REGISTERED FOREIGN AGENT, ON BEHALF OF TURKEY-U.S. BUSINESS COUNCIL (TAIK). MORE INFORMATION IS ON FILE WITH THE DEPT. OF JUSTICE, WASHINGTON, DC".